DON DU CHOEUR MEXICO Santa Cecilia music school

Geneva's Don du Chœur association, which in 15 years has already helped some 2,500 children round the world into education, is now preparing to aid children in a shantytown in Oaxaca State, Mexico.

A concert is being planned for May 2019, with 400 children from Geneva's private schools, to raise funds to expand the Santa Cecilia music school.

Started in 2011, at the foot of a giant rubbish tip near Oaxaca City, the school today has around 100 students aged from 7 to 20. They have formed a symphonic orchestra which last year played at Mexico City, to their parents' great pride. The music school could take in twice as many students if it had somewhere for them to practice and rehearse.

For these kids living on the poverty line, music is a factor of social stability and education. Some who had dropped out of formal learning have started returning to the classroom. Help them to persevere on this positive path!

Your donations go exclusively to this project and will help change these youngsters' lives!
